Experience the best of Wellington with a cruise on the city's unique harbour ferry service.

The trip across the harbour takes approx 20 minutes if direct, 30 minutes if calling into Matiu Somes Island.

The two catamaran ferries accommodate up to 91 and 99 passengers respectively in the comfort of their enclosed main cabin, covered stern deck and open top deck. The ferries have a licensed bar on board serving a full range of refreshments, tea and coffee, snacks, icecreams and wine, beer and spirits.

Matiu Somes Island

This fascinating Island, only recently opened to the public, is a reserve administered by the Department of Conservation. It is steeped in local history from early Maori settlement to more recent times as a prisoner of war camp and quarantine station. It continues to revert back to its native flora and fauna. Being rodent-free, the birdlife is amazing and you may even be lucky enough to see the native tuatara that have recently been reintroduced to the island.

The views from all over the easy walking tracks on the island are unsurpassed and not to be missed.

Take a picnic and allow at least 3 hours to explore.

Days Bay

One of Wellington's best swimming beaches set amongst a backdrop of beautiful native forest. Attractions include great waterfront cafes, restaurants and an arts and craft shop. Also the Pavillion in Williams Park opposite the wharf, is renowned for its icecreams, a duck pond and easy short bush walks.

Eastbourne village is just a 10 minute stroll around the foreshore with more shops and restaurants on offer. So head over for an ice cream in the park or lunch or dinner on the water's edge.

You are spoilt for choice with cafes and a restaurant only 2 minutes from Days Bay wharf.

Petone

Petone's Jackson St is just a few minutes walk from the wharf and offers an eclectic mix of cafes and boutique shops.

Seatoun

Our new port of call in the weekends! Stroll around the waterfront bays. Seatoun residents can now commute to the city by ferry, from 3 March 2008, for a three month trial period.

Harbour Explorer Excursion

For that total round harbour experience calling in at different stops, take any one of our Harbour Explorer Excursion sailings departing Queens Wharf. This service operates in fine weather only, please check on the day by calling 04 494 3339

For enquiries about chartering our ferries phone 04 499 1282.
